Ross Baymen Society

The Ross Baymen branch of the women's auxiliary of the Episcopal church had Wednesday afternoon at the parish house. Twenty-six officers responded to call, in the absence of the president, Mrs. Gordon Bryan. Dr. Sykes gave a comprehensive talk on the history of the church, which is being generally discussed in the Episcopalian church at this time. Delegates were elected to attend the conference which will be held in Boston on January 13. During the social period that followed the business meeting, Mrs. W. L. Hammer, Mrs. G. O. Flemlister and Mrs. E. P. Hausefrau served tea.

Christian Church Meeting

There will be a baptismal and social meeting at the First Christian Church this evening at 7:30 o'clock. The purpose of which is a general good time and the perfecting of plans for the new year. A program consisting of vocal and instrumental ensemble readings and short talks will be given. An invitation is extended to all members and friends of the congregation.

AT THE AMUSE

Maurice Powers' newest production, "Deep Waters," will be the attraction at the Amuse Theatre today. The story was adapted from F. Boulevard with a plot by George C. Scott, W. M. Martin, Director and the scenes are laid on the New England coast.

Caleb West, a man just his prime, and his girl-wife, Betty, are the central figures in the story. Betty becomes attracted to a young sailor, Bill Lacey, and though she does not love him, they run away together. Later, the ship is wrecked, leaving Caleb, Bill, and Betty adrift. Caleb West brings the ladys of the sea back to the surface. In a dramatic scene, the loyalty of Betty to her husband asserts itself and a touching reconciliation takes place between the two.

Contingency Should Be Sponsored

OPEN NOSTRILS! END A COLD OR CATARRH

How To Get Relief When Head and Nose are Stuffed Up.

Count Giltz! You cold in head or nostril discharge. Your congested nostrils will open, the air passages of your head will clear and you can breathe freely. No nose medicine, nothing can discharge discharge of nostrils or sinuses. It is safe and effective. Get a small bottle of Dr. C. C. C. Cold Balm from your druggist and apply a little of this fragrant antiseptic ointment in your nostrils. It penetrates through every air passage of the head, soothing and healing the swollen or inflamed mucous membranes, clearing your nostrils and head colds and causing you to snore. Don't use stuffy nostrils or nostrils. Better to use.

LEGION WILL STAGE DRIVE FOR MEMBERS

Committees Will Canvass City and Make Report Thursday Night

A membership drive will be instituted at once by the local post of the American Legion and committees were appointed at a meeting at headquarters last night to canvass the city in the interest of the organization, according to a called meeting to be held in the office of Paul First Vice Commander John McCampbell in the First State Bank Building Thursday night. Special effort will be made to open the new year with membership equal to that of last year. The roster contained 161 names fully paid up members, although the total of these is 165 from the territory during the year. There are two hundred persons in this territory eligible to membership and the committee will endeavor to add each of them to the roster.

Under a resolution passed at the second annual convention of the American Legion at Cleveland, Ohio, Sept. 28, 1920, national dues are payable at least once a year and must be paid by Feb. 1. If this obligation is not met with the member is considered delinquent and his name is taken from the roster.

National dues are $1 a year and state dues are increased from one cent to 25 at last night's meeting, making the dues to $1.25 per year. This money includes subscription to the American Legion Weekly.

The membership subcommittee consisted of the evening and the remainder of the time was given to routine business.

Citizens Give Children Free Motion Picture

Through the contribution of citizens of the city, about 1,000 children of the city were enabled to witness the motion picture. The Corporation of the American Legion, a non-profit corporation, illustrating the trials of a man selected by President Lincoln during the Civil War for a deliberate task which played out in the light of a shadow. Persons witnessing the pictures and realizing the value of instruction would convey it to the schools. The pictures were shown in the auditorium of the former library on Main Street where a temporary screen was held.

The First Lutheran Church loaned Dr. J. P. Lockhart of Poser was loaned to the city.

The following persons and business establishments donated gifts in the necessary funds:

Dr. J. A. Hausefrau, City Drug Store; James C. Givens, County Collector; Charles L. L. Gilders, Gymnasium; Contractors, H. E. D. Madala, Fred Petruski, Joseph Winters, Harry Morris, Louis G. O. Cook, H. M. Bullock, H. H. King, H. A. Goss, Edward S. Goss, C. V. Smith, Frank Johnson, John C. Givens, W. J. Hanmer, Thomas, Givens, and G. C. C. Cold Balm; it is difficult to name so many because of contributions received.

Arthur Irwin Next Offering of the Lyceum

By The Associated Press

ARTHUR IRWIN next offering of the Lyceum, to be staged here under the auspices of the American Legion Monday night, Jan. 14, at the high school auditorium. Arthur Irwin, star of "Mystery Men," will be in town to direct the building of Mystery Men, the new musical comedy, which is being presented in the new auditorium of the former Legion hall.

The movement is sponsored for the purpose of reviving Theodore Roosevelt's memory and as an incentive for American youth to increase the level of good citizenship.

In interpreting "The Roosevelt," Mr. Irwin will make use of his great dramatic and pedagogic gifts in the new offering. He is versatile and his program consists of leadership, impersonal and dramatic readings, adding "a bit of music now and then."
